Three tragic drownings in 24 hours

The local community has been dismayed by the two deaths from drowning in 24 hours. The first was the death of the three-year-old

The beach of Los Locos

The 3-year-old boy, Avery James Greene, was rescued with symptoms of drowning when discovered in the pool of the urbanisation of Aguamarina in Cabo Roig. Despite prompt emergency medical treatment the toddler was unable to recover from the consequences of remaining so long without oxygen and, despite the boy who fell into a swimming pool in the Aguamarina urbanisation where he was on holiday with his family. The second, in Torrevieja was a 60-year-old man who died whilst bathing at the beach of Los Locos.

These deaths are added to a swimmer who was found at the breakwater of the Postiguet beach in Alicante, which brought the total to three deaths in two days in the province.
